INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

The Public Domain-Civilization of the Indians-Pension Matters. Washington, December 2d .- The annual report of the Secretary of the Interior opens with a brief review of the opening of Oklahoma, the successful negotiations of a treaty with the Sioux Indians, and the admission of four new States. In reviewing the pro-gress of the work of the Cherokee Commission, the Secretary speaks at length of leases to cattle companies, and recommends the necessity of Congress making more exact and stringent laws prohibiting the di-rect interference of citizens with the move-ment of the Government when attempting negotiations with Indian tribes. Speaking of the coming census of 1890, the Secretary suggests, upon recommendation of Superntendent Porter, that our decennial census would be far more complete and satisfac-tory if the Census Office were made a per-

First—Coughlin is either guilty or innocent. He could not have had those knives if they were Cronin's. If guilty he would not have had them if they were Cronin's

Those two plain propositions in the mind of any reasoning man would be the end of that knife episode—the last and grand climax that the State gave to the case of suspicion against these men. Judge Wing then took up the question of alleged conspiracy in Camp 20. The State, he said, had to make out a conspiracy because this case could not be maintained in peyond all reasonable doubt. Speaking of the ways in which to establish conspiracy, he said: You can consider all the proven facts, and from that infer the conspiracy, if the conspiracy is proven by that process beyond all reasonable doubt. It is fair and it is right under the law that when you are weighing any cirumstance against Coughlin you should ook at that circumstance in the light of November 1st, and over twelve and a half millions since July 1st, I object to this jury or Court taking a partly proven conspiracy, and from it giv-ing color and character to the individual

PHILADELPHIA (Pa.), December 2d.—A hree-story brick building at the corner of Second and Huntington streets burned early this morning. The basement and first floor were used by Gustave Gross as a bakery. The second floor was occupied as a dwelling by Gross, his wife and four children, and on the third floor was the dwelling of Joseph Bitner, with his wife and four children.

The fire burned so rapidly that before the occupants could be aroused the following were burned to death: Mrs. Annie Bitner aged 35; Ida Bitner, aged 4; George Bitner, aged 9 months; Gustave Gross, Jr., aged 11; Bruno Gross, aged 5, and Mrs.

A Captain Apologizes for Being Drunk and Swears Off. DENVER (Col.), December 2d.-A Santa Fe, N. M., special to the Republican says: An order came from the War Department to-day suspending the general Court-mar-tial called by Colonel Grierson, the Department Commander, for to-morrow, for the trial of charges against Captain Morris C. Wessels of the Twenty-fourth Infantry, now stationed at Fort Grant, A. T. Captain Wessels is charged with violating the articles of war relating to drunken-ness. Saturday afternoon he appeared before Captain Bailey, acting Judge Advo-cate at Fort Marcy, and made a satisfactory explanation of his conduct, at the same time taking a pledge from intoxicants for five years. Upon this showing the War Department issued the order. Wessels is

In San Francisco the piece met with varying criticism, some of it harsh, but it was agreed that it it had no literary merit, it is a beautifu spectacle and full of novelties, and well supplied with capable people. Among these are Alice Gilbert, the temale Gaiety dancer; Senor and Senora Plairas, noted Spanish gymnasts; the Tiscotts, stage marionettes; Francescina Paris, a widely-known ballet leader, and Arnold Kiralfy, the grotesque dancer. The promise is made that all the scenery used at the California Theater in the piece will be staged here, and that in costumes and fittings and mounting the spectacle will be given here as there to the minutest detail.

"From an experience of over thirty years in the sale of proprietary medicines, I feel justified in recommending Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. One of the best recommendations of the Pectoral is the enduring quality of its popularity, it being more salable now than it was twenty-five years ago, when its great success was considered marvelous."—

"My little sister, four years of age, was so ill from bronchitis that we had almost given up hope of her recovery. Our family physician, a skilful man and of large experience, pronounced it use-less to give her any more medicine; saying that he had done all it was pos-sible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with the most happy results. After taking a few doses she seemed to breathe easier, and, within a week, was out of danger. We continued giving the Pectoral until satisfied she was entirely well. This has given me unbounded faith in the preparation, and I recommend it
